Dear friends:

Welcome to the Compatibility and Conflict Report for Business and Friendship and the myriad ways of expressing the continual dance of relationship. This report is based on methods employed through years of working with relationships of all kinds, observing them and analyzing the lives of the famous and infamous. The contacts described in this program are certainly not all the combinations possible between two individuals. But they are the core patterns of relationship analysis that I begin with in determining areas of compatibility and potential conflict between individuals. These basic points of contact are analyzed to arrive at an interpretation of what is central for a strong relationship or for one that teaches something of importance and leaves a lasting impression.

In many of the interpretations, I've described the highest potential that one can strive for with a particular combination. Yet this is only a potential and being human we have complex emotions and contradictory issues and reactions at any given time in our lives. Use this report as a guide to make your relationships as rewarding and fulfilling as you possibly can while knowing that your relationships are simply mirroring your own soul's struggles. Each relationship will fulfill something within you and challenge you to look at your shadow and transform yourself. Sometimes this means staying in a relationship and sometimes the learning process requires that you let the relationship go. These decisions are never easy and they should only be made after careful and truthful introspection, reflection and guidance. But ultimately, these decisions are yours and yours alone to make. Remember that although you may have some difficult areas of relating with a particular person, it is in those areas that you can learn the most about yourself and others and grow in wisdom. It would be a mistake to look for a business partner or friend with whom you have no disagreements at all and this kind of relationship is a fantasy, rarely if ever, a reality.

Thank you for purchasing the report and I hope it is meaningful and useful to you.

Special thanks to John Flagg for unflagging editorial support.

Chapter 1: Bonds For Energy, Fun and Lasting Impressions

This section is based on the idea that there are three basic needs in every relationship:

Interest, energy and stimulation.

Enjoyment, abundance, expansion of awareness/possibilities and sense of contentment or happiness.

Commitment, consistency, teaching each other, sharing values or reaffirming/confirming something essential in each other.

The sort between your charts is for eleven separate aspects that define energy, fun and lasting impressions between you. Most strong relationships have at least four to six of these aspects between their charts.

Hillary Rodham's Sun Trine USA's Moon:

Core Themes: With an easy aspect of the Sun and Moon between your charts, there is an instant recognition of familiarity and compatibility. You naturally like each other and enjoy each other's company. You share some very similar attitudes, habits, likes and dislikes. You reflect and expand each other's instinctive and emotional behaviors. You may find yourselves saying the same things simultaneously or even having the same thoughts at the same time. Clearly, you will experience being comfortable with each other more often than not whenever you are together.

There will be many areas where you will readily agree with each other, yet at the same time, be sure to allow yourselves to have your differences. This smooth way of relating that you generate so naturally will serve you well when you come up against difficulties or obstacles. You have a day-to-day ease and familiarity that sustains you. With this combination, you will tend to reflect each other well and enjoy each other's personality and ways of expressing yourselves, which makes working together natural and pleasant. Often you will feel joined by the other in stimulating ways and volley energy back and forth in a way that's satisfying and makes you smile. You have many of the same likes, dislikes, attitudes and sensibilities, possibly similar backgrounds. There is a natural understanding of each other's essential being. The intent of this aspect is to create ease and harmony between you.

Hillary Rodham's Asc in Gemini and USA's 7th House in Gemini:

Core Themes: With this aspect, you will feel an easy natural relating when you are together. Although your approaches may differ, you will often complement each other. The intent of this aspect is to focus and strengthen your ability to relate harmoniously without giving up individuality within relationship. The ASC's personality reflects what the DSC person is in part seeking from relationship with others and vice versa.

Even though it's true that your natural approaches to people and projects differ, you have much to offer each other in a complementary way. What one overlooks the other will pick-up and vice versa until before you know it; you operate like a well-oiled machine. Be sure to give praise and credit where it's due, so as to avoid getting locked into only a single way to get things done. If you're working together on a project, play to each other's strength, allow each other to take on the role most suited and you will win the day. This is the classic "complementary opposites" situation, with a great deal to offer both of you.

Hillary Rodham's MC in Pisces and USA's 4th House in Pisces:

Core Themes: The interplay of career and domestic issues will be one primary focus in your interactions with each other. You are also likely to debate the merits of both external and inner needs, expressions or expectations, at length. One intention of this aspect is to encourage you to find just the right balance between your worldly or external achievements and your personal levels of contentment, as well as domestic harmony. The community environment, what it means to you and how you want to participate in it, together or separately, will also be the subject of discussion.

With this aspect there is a good indication that you can be buddies both at work and off the job. You will often take opposite views on how to manage and organize situations or projects. However, with some patience and skill you can each fill in what the other lacks or where one of you has a blind spot. More than likely you will seek the same outcome in many situations but will tend to go about achieving the goal in very different ways.

USA's Moon Trine Hillary Rodham's Asc.:

Core Themes: There is an easy outlet for the expression of emotions in your relationship and your association will have a strong emotional component. Provided you can handle the extra measure of emotional sensitivity, your relationship is enhanced by support of each other's feelings. The intent of this aspect is to increase your caring and nurturing capacities with each other and those whose lives you touch. Compassion and understanding in action is an important feature of your relationship.

You are likely to enjoy many of the same activities and have a unique and relaxed understanding of each other, that makes being with together very comfortable. Interfacing with others and the public at large is an important additional and easy way the two of you relate when you are together. People, the public and social issues are not only of interest to you but you're natural with the public. Most people will find you caring, compassionate and sincere, because somehow you are able to put yourselves in the other person's shoes. Business activities involving the public or any aspect of community concerns including finances and housing, commodities and commerce will be easy for you as a team.

USA's Moon Opp Hillary Rodham's Saturn:

Core Themes: This aspect is a binding one but has its share of struggles. The bond is one of a perceived (or real) responsibility toward each other. The two of you will have challenges and obstacles to overcome and obligations to shoulder. The intent of this energy pattern between you is to help you develop a greater understanding of trustworthiness and reliability, exactly what that means and where and how these concepts fit into your relationship.

Obstacles or burdens may prevent you from maintaining your business association long term or they can make your relationship stronger as you face them together. Some of the struggles this aspect reveals concern the balance between your past history, your families or divergent career and home needs. You could have very different feelings or definitions about the roles each of you should assume within the structure of your business relationship. Faithfully seeking to determine what the most important priorities are in your work together will help you separate the real issues from non-essential ones. Sometimes what initially appears to be an issue is, upon deeper scrutiny, a non-issue. Trust and responsibility are key factors in the success or failure of your partnership. In fact, it is probably untrustworthiness or irresponsible behavior that will end your relationship.

Hillary Rodham's Sun Trine USA's Jupiter:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to have you experience large doses of good fortune, joy, exuberance, adventure, opportunity and optimism. Your lives will open up and expand as a result of your relationship. There is a distinct desire for comfort and ease but, if not balanced well, this can lead to laziness or procrastination. The challenge in this aspect is to maintain the health of both the mind and body. There's an inclination to take a philosophical attitude toward life experiences and to gain from life's richness and variety.

There is a philanthropic quality to your business association. Together, you are willing to do things in a big way and take risks in the process. As business associates you will enhance and benefit each other. Goodwill and positive thinking, provided that you've done your homework and accepted the consequences, will bring you many wonderful experiences and praise from others. Because it will be easy for you to give of yourselves or your resources, you will need to choose carefully. Overextending yourselves is a real problem and can easily cause your optimism to crash. Boredom is anathema, and so both of you will have your antennae out for the next project to tackle. A regular amount of physical activity is vital and will keep you healthy and your ideas prolific.

USA's Moon Square Hillary Rodham's Jupiter:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to stimulate emotional satisfaction and a generous, openhearted disposition. The intent of this aspect is also to teach you better judgment and encourage wisdom from the many and varied experiences you actively seek. The attributes of joy, hope, good will and a sense of adventure are highlighted. Feelings of expansiveness can easily induce you to overdo and overextend yourselves in various ways. You are likely to stimulate a wealth of feelings in each other and a generally open-minded attitude. The good life beckons and all that this implies. Abundance or excessiveness is part of this aspect, which is certainly not always a negative. It's up to you to decide how far to reach and how far to extend yourselves. Your enthusiasm will open doors and create opportunities.

This aspect leans towards excessiveness. Whether an expression is excessive, over the top or fitting for a particular context is something that you and your business partner will have to decide. How much is too much and the resultant consequences form the learning curve that you will be testing together. This aspect requires that you determine how you are exceeding your boundaries and whether that's a good thing or not. Emotions will go out of control from time to time, particularly when one of you is overwhelmed with too much to handle. There will be times of poor judgment when you will discover that you failed to take an important element of a situation into consideration. Resist saying yes until you've evaluated the conditions or slept on the idea or proposal. Exaggeration and failing to keep promises will create problems and so will over optimism without full knowledge of the facts. If you experience too much "bad luck," re-evaluate your choices and be generous wherever you can to maintain the balance between taking and giving.

Hillary Rodham's Moon Square USA's Venus:

Core Themes: With an overall tendency to good fortune and harmony, this aspect brings up issues concerning shared values and mutual support. Social connections and interactions are favored and favorable. The intent of this aspect is to address the issues of ease, cooperation and consideration in all interactions and associations and to come to terms with one's value system.

Although there is kinship between you, you may feel undervalued, misunderstood or poorly treated by your associate or business partner. The fondness is there but you'll have to work on the breach of respect or any damage to self-esteem caused by you or your partner. It's important that you put effort into acknowledging the good qualities that each of you has, even though they may be very different from your own. When you are in conflict make sure you don't disparage your partner just because you don't like their choices or values. Be sure to give credit where and when it is due. It's easy to take the good graces and support of your partner for granted but it does harm to the good will of your relationship long term. The purpose of this aspect is to teach you cooperation, negotiation and compromise even in small everyday matters and choices.

Chapter 2: Emotions and Communication

The following aspects detail the quality of your emotional connection, your basic level of comfort and your ease or difficulty in communicating, and discussing emotions and simply understanding where each of you is coming from. Additionally, these aspects help describe how you reason together and resolve issues or problems.

USA's Moon in Aquarius, and Hillary Rodham's is in Pisces:

Core Themes: Dissimilar emotional needs are indicated and to some extent different dispositions. Some of each other's daily habits can be annoying or irritating, making sharing the same physical spaces for long periods of time more difficult. In matters of timing, it is likely that, occasionally, you will be on a different page than your partner and operate on another timing pattern. The intent of this aspect is to find your way to emotional understanding despite different sensibilities and to respect the feelings of the other person although unlike your own.

Although you are fond of each other on many levels, your basic day-to-day habits are probably very different. You approach life's mundane chores and happenings in ways that may not be clearly understood by your partner. Your feelings and responses can sometimes be confusing for the other person as much as they like you and want to understand. This can cause not only friction but also frustration on a regular basis in the course of working together. Your habits and peculiarities can grate on each other and be the cause of arguments and misunderstandings. If you need to work together, it behooves you to practice patience and show willingness to compromise so as to resolve some of these differences. This aspect definitely requires more tolerance and acceptance, to allow for differences in mood and reaction. You have attracted this combination because of your own need to dig deeper into your habitual ways of responding and to search out the roots of your behavior by exploring your upbringing. There are many things you do that are unconscious and automatic, and contact with your partner will allow you to take a closer look, modify the negatives and also reaffirm your strongest feelings.

Hillary Rodham's Mercury Trine USA's Mercury:

Core Themes: Shared perspectives or styles of problem solving, even communicating, are the hallmark of this aspect. The intent of this energy combination is to facilitate communication, speaking, reasoning and so forth, in order to swiftly and creatively resolve issues, find solutions to problems that arise and create original ideas.

There are many different ways to communicate and the two of you seem to be on the same wavelength most of the time. In other words, your business partner or associate understands and responds well to your style and method of reasoning, thinking and expressing your thoughts and ideas. You usually have the benefit of making yourselves understood the first time, without rehashing and reiterating endlessly. Of course, you won't agree on everything all of the time, but coming to agreement on issues important to you or perceiving what the other wants to communicate will be easier. Your styles of intelligence are also similar and your preferences for mental stimulation could be the same. Teamwork is favored because when you put your heads together, you're more likely to arrive at a creative solution you can both live with than either of you could accomplish separately.

Chapter 3: Fulfilling Each Other's Relationship Needs

These aspects explain how you meet each other's needs in important business or friendship partnerships. These aspects are based on what your natal chart describes that you're looking for in any major one-on-one relationship interaction.

Hillary Rodham's Moon Trine USA's 7th house ruler, Mercury:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to create awareness of the emotional undercurrents of language and how voice tone and inflection can make all the difference in your communication and how others receive it.

There is a subtle emotional communication between you. A subliminal understanding of each other's moods often means that you can intuit what your business partner is about to say or do. And you communicate quite easily on a wide variety of topics. However, there will always be a strong emotional content to your communication. It will be important to the health of your business situation to frequently discuss your feelings and concerns with each other. In this way, you'll keep on top of the business project. The common denominator in many of your projects is creating situations that are nurturing as well as informative. Maintaining caring and soliciting feedback from your clients and the people, to whom your business caters, will ensure customer loyalty and continued growth.

Hillary Rodham's Mercury Trine USA's 7th house ruler, Mercury:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to help you discriminate among the voluminous mass of information that you come in contact with or you seek out. It's worth remembering that sometimes what sounds intelligent may in reality be hogwash. This aspect liberates you to separate the wheat from the chaff, the essential, from the info not worth your time or attention.

Communication, sociability and a keen awareness of your environment will be key elements and important features of your business relationship. Use these skills to best effect and make your business projects sparkle. One of the pitfalls of these energies is getting overloaded from one too many events or too much people contact within a short span of time. Over-scheduling yourselves individually or as a team can bring about unwanted stress and irritation. Although the tendency is to reach out and cover all possibilities, the reality is that this strategy will tax your personal and business resources. Instead, refine your contacts to those that will likely yield you a bigger return. In other words, make more informed choices based on some researched facts and, as they say, "do the math". Your quick and ready wit will make inevitable chores much lighter.

USA's Moon Square Hillary Rodham's 7th house ruler, Jupiter:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to open the width and breadth of life for you, to experience, to receive, to be aware of your abundance and to give back generously whatever you can.

You feel enhanced and optimistic when you are relating to each other. Not only do you naturally like each other but this opening of positive emotions will benefit both of you. Just don't let the blind optimism cloud your practical judgment. You'll still have to do the numbers when it comes to a business proposition. On the other hand, taking a calculated risk could be just the thing to get your project moving. Be aware of the tendency for exaggeration, as it could earn you a reputation for inaccuracy and unreliability. On the plus side, together you can encourage enthusiasm and high spirits in others wherever you go. Put that energy to good use by sharing the extra resources you have and creating more good will around you. Your openness to others brings many opportunities your way, and people will call you fortunate. As we know, luck is simply a return of what you have previously given.

USA's Pluto Sextile Hillary Rodham's 7th house ruler, Jupiter:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to have you seek necessary changes and find ways to release restrictive emotional patterns in order to achieve a greater, smoother life with ultimate satisfaction of desires and needs.

Right from the beginning of your association, you will perceive the powerful possibilities and the potential for big and wonderful things that can only be guessed at initially. Merging your power and your resources and focusing them on a common goal will greatly increase your chances of success. Your desire to develop and improve systems is strong and is a natural talent that you can apply to any business project pending. You have the ability to take advantage of growth-producing conditions, and your instinct is to encourage and improve positive potential wherever you find it. Once you believe in the merit of something, it is easy for you to persuade others to participate. Because of this, people will want you on their team. Use your instinct to determine which of several options and opportunities will develop along the lines you want. This aspect can spell big success but it is equally prone to big mistakes. Make sure you've thoroughly researched your project before you invest time, energy and resources.

USA's Asc. Conj Hillary Rodham's 7th house ruler, Jupiter:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to encourage the full expression of your personalities in the way you relate to others. This combination teaches the difference between positive enhancement and excess.

Your positive energy and enthusiasm cannot be contained and naturally spills over to others who come into your circle. It will be difficult to harness your boundless energy, and you will seek others who are like-minded and want to explore the options and choices that life has to offer. You need a project that's stimulating enough to capture your interest and that allows you to express your desire for improvement as well as the ideas and opinions you've cultivated. There is a tendency to grab for the gusto, but taking your time with the important choices will be in your best interest and save you negative experiences and disappointments. Be sure to allow days and not minutes for those major business decisions and to research information fully to get accurate up-to-date information. Shooting from the hip or exaggerating can cost you the respect and integrity you want and need in your business.

Chapter 4: Your Closest Contacts, Your Strongest Themes

This section interprets the closest connections between your charts. The wisdom of this section says that the closest aspects explain the major or central themes of your relationship and the reason you have come together. The nature of these aspects will also define the main activities, interests and patterns that affect your relationship life together.

Notice that, in this section, each paragraph contains both the easier expression of energies and the more challenging ones. Both interpretations are included because these close connections pertain to the central learning curve of your relationship. Based on the premise that the more exact the connection (also the closest energetic contact) between your pair of planets, the more psychologically significant the aspect will be for each of you. This means that you are likely to be strongly influenced by each other in the areas described. Because of this, it will be useful to consider both the easier and more challenging interpretations even though you lead with one of them. You will, from time to time and in various circumstances, probably exhibit some elements of each interpretation, both the easier expressions as well as the more challenging ones. Another thing - it's possible with both types of aspects that you will have the same challenges but simply respond or react to them in different ways. The goal is to rise to the best possible expression of each combination. This is the learning curve and this bestows the necessary wisdom to develop your relationship.

USA's Mars Sextile Hillary Rodham's Saturn (easier aspect):

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship themes are commitment, protection, mastery and integrity and pursuing your goals with determination and persistence.

Easier aspects: In business you will not leave things to chance, because your energies require planning, organizing and preparation. You prefer to err on the side of caution and are generally not impetuous or prone to rushing into situations. In addition, you will quickly want to know where you stand in your business relationships and partnerships. Making a commitment and having business contracts is the preferred and sensible way for you to be in partnership with each other. Each of you must feel secure and protected in any business contracts you sign and in the way you delegate how the work is to be divided. Precision and excellence will distinguish the work you undertake as business partners. You are of the opinion that if it is worth doing at all, it is worth doing well. Reaching for excellence encourages others and sets an example. Others will admire and emulate, if not your achievements, then certainly your style.

Challenging aspects: There's a seriousness with which you approach life and your business together. At times this seriousness can mean you are too negative in your viewpoint. Be aware of that tendency and seek professional help to bring balance to your attitude. Still, you are likely to face obstacles and challenges together that, at times, will test your commitment and strength. But you do have the endurance to overcome tough times. Maintain your integrity and, with persistence and determination, you will achieve your goals. Resistance and defensiveness are habits you do not want to indulge. Allow external challenges to develop your inner, unshakeable strength. As much as possible, adhere to proven business practices, such as contracts and other protective measures to secure assets and resources. Although you may have your sights set on something specific, circumstantial realities may prevent you from achieving in some areas. If this is the case, cut your losses and move on to the next project.

Hillary Rodham's Sun Trine USA's Venus (easier aspect):

Core Themes: If this is the most exact contact between your charts, you will be concerned with the quality of your relationship and the balance or harmony within it. Maintaining and building your relationship and those that arise as a result of your partnership will also be important to you. How to resolve conflict through cooperation and negotiation is a core principle of this combination.

Easier aspects: Together, you have naturally cooperative and partnering tendencies. In fact, you prefer to work as a team, to give and receive mutual support. It seems easy for you to practice consideration and fairness in your dealings with your business partner and with others associated with your work. The need and desire for harmony and balance can pervade other aspects of your business life, such as the environment you work in. Even your work itself may be associated with beauty and smoothing out relationship conflicts and tensions through negotiation and cooperation.

Challenging aspects: Although you do appreciate and genuinely like each other, there will be times that you act in ways that seem to be unkind, inconsiderate, or lack caring. At those times, you can also appear to be taking your partner for granted, and this is not good for your business relationship. No relationship can survive without sufficient praise and acknowledgement. Self-indulgence or a lax fiscal policy can be issues you need to deal with. Compromising too much to satisfy your partner and thus losing self-esteem can be another sore point.

Hillary Rodham's Mercury Trine USA's 4th house cusp (easier aspect):

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship theme is presenting your particular message and skills to your community and family and through your career path. You can be in the marketing, advertising, journalism, teaching or writing worlds, because your language and communication skills are clearly obvious.

Easier aspects: Much of your communication and conversation with each other focuses on practical career matters or issues pertaining to your top priorities, including your home and family life. Fortunately for your business partnership, there is no end to the generating of ideas. Advertising and promotional material reaching your target market is an excellent outlet for your combined communication or writing skills. Other possible interests, in addition to or part of your main business are the education of children or the continued development of your own numerous interests and skills through further training. You are recognized and sought out in your community for communication, teaching or learning skills.

Challenging aspects: Your many skills and interests can at times distract you from your primary business goals and you need to be aware of this possibility. Spending time regularly going over the list of activities you are committed to and weeding out those that are not relevant to your goals will keep you from getting overwhelmed and underproductive. Scattering your energies will dissipate your message and keep you from the success you desire. Although you need variety, grouping your interests and tackling a few projects at a time will help you achieve more in a shorter time. Back up your talk with action. Determine your greatest strength and let others pick up the slack.

USA's Moon Trine Hillary Rodham's Uranus (easier aspect):

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship themes concern the need for freedom, authenticity, independence, truthfulness and creative self-expression. Human rights and basic human freedoms for all people are recurring issues.

Easier aspects: Being in a business partnership or collaboration means that you will not have a conventional business style or model, nor would you want one. You may even have an unconventional type of business to begin with. You are often positioned as innovators at the cutting edge of your business sector. The two of you are happiest when you're creating original product or ideas or a business style that suits your individual and eclectic tastes. You thrive on originality and even a bit of eccentricity in your approach to business and life and in the colleagues and friendships you seek. Others will be attracted to your sparkle, your honesty and your sense of fun. When asked, you could very likely convey that your business is more exciting and creative than work and that's the way you like it. You strive to be alert to community and global events and are interested or involved in some type of human rights activism. Your lives are peppered with excitement and creative flair. You would not be averse to making abrupt changes to business mode, model, design or product should the situation warrant it.

Challenging aspects: This combination indicates abrupt shifts and changes in mood and temperament. Sometimes these shifts in perspective or position are exciting and innovative but clearly at other times they can be disruptive and unpleasant. Make sure your wish to change the status quo is grounded in reason otherwise it is likely to spoil your profitability or even your reputation. Being unpredictable or mired in controversy can create some publicity nightmares for you, if you're not careful. The desire for excitement can turn from drama to melodrama and you often find yourselves in uncomfortable situations with others. The basic impulse is toward the creative and innovative and you often serve as catalysts to increase awareness in a situation that is stuck. At times, you can be too blunt or too abrupt and you will antagonize others. Your erratic moods will make people feel uncertain of you, and your rebelliousness can alienate. Make sure you have enough unstructured time, so that you can freely and independently create at your own pace.

USA's Jupiter Trine Hillary Rodham's MC (easier aspect):

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship theme is to reach high and strive to attain your most important dreams. Learning, adventure and wisdom are what you seek.

Easier aspects: A clear aim, strong skills and a positive attitude will allow you to reach your goals every time. This pattern is the golden key to your business aspirations and is the core of your business partnership. You are generally easygoing with each other and understanding of changes in schedules and tempo, because your lives are filled with many extra activities both at work and at home. Because of this, you will do well to avoid overextending yourselves. As business partners, you are each other's best coach and support each other in any project you undertake. People consider you lucky, but you know it's a matter of being prepared and, when opportunity knocks, being willing to take the risk for what you want. Coaching sports or any number of other activities can be a way you give back to the community that supports you.

Challenging aspects: The vibrancy and positive gusto with which you approach life are great assets in business and will gain you associates, colleagues and supporters. You have great courage and enthusiasm, but, at times, this very same energy makes you overdo or exaggerate. Be sure you are centered, that your motives are clean and you've taken the time to aim carefully for your goal. Shooting in the dark won't get you the effect you want. Keep remembering that you are a team and you'll curb your competitiveness with each other and place that extra energy into your priority project. Dissipation or overindulgence will dull your edge. Scattering your energies among too many projects can diffuse your influence and your available energies. Keep bragging to a minimum and keep your "eyes on the prize," the one that's worth all your efforts.
