Dear friends:

Welcome to the Compatibility and Conflict Report for Business and Friendship and the myriad ways of expressing the continual dance of relationship. This report is based on methods employed through years of working with relationships of all kinds, observing them and analyzing the lives of the famous and infamous. The contacts described in this program are certainly not all the combinations possible between two individuals. But they are the core patterns of relationship analysis that I begin with in determining areas of compatibility and potential conflict between individuals. These basic points of contact are analyzed to arrive at an interpretation of what is central for a strong relationship or for one that teaches something of importance and leaves a lasting impression.

In many of the interpretations, I've described the highest potential that one can strive for with a particular combination. Yet this is only a potential and being human we have complex emotions and contradictory issues and reactions at any given time in our lives. Use this report as a guide to make your relationships as rewarding and fulfilling as you possibly can while knowing that your relationships are simply mirroring your own soul's struggles. Each relationship will fulfill something within you and challenge you to look at your shadow and transform yourself. Sometimes this means staying in a relationship and sometimes the learning process requires that you let the relationship go. These decisions are never easy and they should only be made after careful and truthful introspection, reflection and guidance. But ultimately, these decisions are yours and yours alone to make. Remember that although you may have some difficult areas of relating with a particular person, it is in those areas that you can learn the most about yourself and others and grow in wisdom. It would be a mistake to look for a business partner or friend with whom you have no disagreements at all and this kind of relationship is a fantasy, rarely if ever, a reality.

Thank you for purchasing the report and I hope it is meaningful and useful to you.

Special thanks to John Flagg for unflagging editorial support.

Chapter 1: Bonds For Energy, Fun and Lasting Impressions

This section is based on the idea that there are three basic needs in every relationship:

Interest, energy and stimulation.

Enjoyment, abundance, expansion of awareness/possibilities and sense of contentment or happiness.

Commitment, consistency, teaching each other, sharing values or reaffirming/confirming something essential in each other.

The sort between your charts is for eleven separate aspects that define energy, fun and lasting impressions between you. Most strong relationships have at least four to six of these aspects between their charts.

John's Asc in Virgo and USA's MC in Virgo:

Core Themes: The personality style of the ASC person is reflected or mirrored in the career path or objectives of the MC person. The MC person is inspired by the easy and natural expression of energy, which the ASC person displays and often feels supported in career priorities, goals or needs. The ASC person feels that the priorities, goals or career path of the MC person harmonize or resonate with some innate aspect of their personality or obvious expression. Another intent of this aspect is to show how personality and career are related and intertwined. You will help each other with career choices, priorities and personal self-expression.

Something the way one of you expresses yourself resonates with the other person's main career or business objectives. Because of this, you stimulate each other and become sources of inspiration for one another. One of you may have the people skills while the other has strong organizational skills. By defining who is the most competent for a particular job, you will meet all the important elements and succeed in the task at hand. Be aware that jealousy can occur unless each person feels their job suits their skill-set and they are properly respected, complemented and compensated.

John's 4th House in Sagittarius and USA's Asc in Sagittarius:

Core Themes: The ASC person understands and relates to the IC person's root or family issues and vice versa. You will find yourselves discussing and debating themes of personal identity, approach to the world or self-image based on the personalities that were conditioned and shaped by your family of origin and even your ancestry. One intention of this aspect is to show how personality and behavior and your early conditioning are intertwined or related. The personality of the ASC person is compatible with or understands the deeper emotional or past history of the other. The IC person can provide physical or emotional comfort and stability or safe haven for the ASC person and vice versa.

You'll find you can push each other's buttons quite easily because somehow you connect with deeper sensitivities in each other. It's best not to overreact when this takes place but attempt instead to understand what is happening within yourself and what feelings are being aroused. If you do this, you are not likely to be inappropriate or offensive. At the same time, similar values, culturally or socially, and similar backgrounds can forge a special bond between you that will enhance any business dealings you may share. In other words, the two of you are simpatico for each other and this can be quite a useful starting place for working well together.

John's Sun Square USA's Asc.:

Core Themes: This aspect challenges each of your normal ways of expressing your personality and character. The essence of this aspect asks you to allow each other to be who you are and express yourselves freely, without undue interference from the other. At the same time, the aspect will challenge your ability to tolerance different ways of expressing and approaching life situations.

Your interaction will, at times, be uncomfortable because of an initial inability to understand where the other is coming from on an important issue. It will take a greater measure of tolerance and respect for differences before you attain a working harmony in this association. Alleviate the potential challenges by really listening to your colleague, appreciating who this person is and what he or she is trying to accomplish. You may discover something you didn't know before. Frequently, you will be going in different, even opposing directions. There is no law of interaction that says you must always approach things in only one particular way.

John's Sun Sextile USA's Jupiter:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to have you experience large doses of good fortune, joy, exuberance, adventure, opportunity and optimism. Your lives will open up and expand as a result of your relationship. There is a distinct desire for comfort and ease but, if not balanced well, this can lead to laziness or procrastination. The challenge in this aspect is to maintain the health of both the mind and body. There's an inclination to take a philosophical attitude toward life experiences and to gain from life's richness and variety.

There is a philanthropic quality to your business association. Together, you are willing to do things in a big way and take risks in the process. As business associates you will enhance and benefit each other. Goodwill and positive thinking, provided that you've done your homework and accepted the consequences, will bring you many wonderful experiences and praise from others. Because it will be easy for you to give of yourselves or your resources, you will need to choose carefully. Overextending yourselves is a real problem and can easily cause your optimism to crash. Boredom is anathema, and so both of you will have your antennae out for the next project to tackle. A regular amount of physical activity is vital and will keep you healthy and your ideas prolific.

Chapter 2: Emotions and Communication

The following aspects detail the quality of your emotional connection, your basic level of comfort and your ease or difficulty in communicating, and discussing emotions and simply understanding where each of you is coming from. Additionally, these aspects help describe how you reason together and resolve issues or problems.

John's Moon in Capricorn, and USA's is in Aquarius:

Core Themes: Dissimilar emotional needs are indicated and to some extent different dispositions. Some of each other's daily habits can be annoying or irritating, making sharing the same physical spaces for long periods of time more difficult. In matters of timing, it is likely that, occasionally, you will be on a different page than your partner and operate on another timing pattern. The intent of this aspect is to find your way to emotional understanding despite different sensibilities and to respect the feelings of the other person although unlike your own.

Although you are fond of each other on many levels, your basic day-to-day habits are probably very different. You approach life's mundane chores and happenings in ways that may not be clearly understood by your partner. Your feelings and responses can sometimes be confusing for the other person as much as they like you and want to understand. This can cause not only friction but also frustration on a regular basis in the course of working together. Your habits and peculiarities can grate on each other and be the cause of arguments and misunderstandings. If you need to work together, it behooves you to practice patience and show willingness to compromise so as to resolve some of these differences. This aspect definitely requires more tolerance and acceptance, to allow for differences in mood and reaction. You have attracted this combination because of your own need to dig deeper into your habitual ways of responding and to search out the roots of your behavior by exploring your upbringing. There are many things you do that are unconscious and automatic, and contact with your partner will allow you to take a closer look, modify the negatives and also reaffirm your strongest feelings.

USA's Mercury in Cancer, and John's is in Libra:

Core Themes: Outlook, perspective or styles of problem solving, even communicating, are the core of this aspect. This combination is more challenging because your mode of thinking and communicating tends to be quite different. The intent of this energy combination is to resolve issues of communication, speaking, reasoning etc., so that you can reach solutions and conclusions in creative and original ways.

Although you are associates or business partners, there are times when one of you will have great difficulty in figuring out where the other is coming from and what she or he is trying to tell you. Your styles of communication can be very different. The premise upon which you base your reasoning or the logic you use will often perplex your partner. Especially if you have to decide on projects or activities together, your differences can quickly become an issue between you. Talking things through slowly, step by step, will help each of you to understand how the other arrived at his or her opinion or conclusion. This will take patience but in the end will be worth it. What's more, by taking the time to really understand how your partner is thinking, you can not only learn something important about your partner but also get a different perspective yourself. And you will learn how your communication affects others, since your partner is probably not the only one who can't always understand what you're trying to say or figure out your logic. Your interaction will allow you to fine-tune your own thought processes and become more adept and flexible in the ways you communicate with others. This will be doubly useful if you are in a business that requires writing, speaking or regularly communicating with others.

Chapter 3: Fulfilling Each Other's Relationship Needs

These aspects explain how you meet each other's needs in important business or friendship partnerships. These aspects are based on what your natal chart describes that you're looking for in any major one-on-one relationship interaction.

John's Moon Opp USA's 7th house ruler, Mercury:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to create awareness of the emotional undercurrents of language and how voice tone and inflection can make all the difference in your communication and how others receive it.

There is a subtle emotional communication between you. A subliminal understanding of each other's moods often means that you can intuit what your business partner is about to say or do. And you communicate quite easily on a wide variety of topics. However, there will always be a strong emotional content to your communication. It will be important to the health of your business situation to frequently discuss your feelings and concerns with each other. In this way, you'll keep on top of the business project. The common denominator in many of your projects is creating situations that are nurturing as well as informative. Maintaining caring and soliciting feedback from your clients and the people, to whom your business caters, will ensure customer loyalty and continued growth.

John's Venus Sextile USA's 7th house ruler, Mercury:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to help you discover each other's needs in the context of your relationship through open communication and making the necessary adjustments for harmony. This aspect also teaches the importance of give and take and compromise.

You have the potential to have a fair and cooperative business partnership. Of course you want cooperation to continue. At the same time, be sure that things are fair and that you're comfortable with your contribution to the relationship and how it's received by your partner. It's vital that responsibilities and kudos are equally shared. Certainly during the course of your relationship there will, at times, be breaches in consideration and mindfulness of each other's needs and roles within the partnership. At that point, you'll have to discuss what's happening and compensate or compromise until you've reached a balance with each other once more. Social invitations seem abundant, and connecting with others, how much or how little, will be an issue for the two of you to balance among your other duties.

John's Saturn Trine USA's 7th house ruler, Mercury:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is remembering the important or essential matters of your life, leaving the rest behind, keeping your commitments sacred and honoring them to the best of your ability.

Commitment and responsibility will form the core of your business relationship and the issues you will face. You may feel that your relationship has a fated quality -- that there is a connection between you that is ancient or has roots in long ago. Perhaps you owe each other a debt, because there are times when you distinctly feel a sense of obligation toward your business partner. Your interactions with each other will foster communication about right and wrong, timing and issues of security. Maybe one of you likes to be more organized while the other wants things to be more spontaneous. There's room for compromise, so that both of you feel satisfied with the way things are done at least part of the time. From time to time, you'll struggle with the minutiae of things to do, and you're apt to feel burdened and tired. If this happens too often, it means you're taking on too much responsibility and you've got to hand some off to others. Stick with your expertise or what you truly enjoy about the business and hire others for the lesser or more mundane chores.

John's Pluto Conj USA's 7th house ruler, Mercury:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to push your buttons forcefully; bringing you in touch with your core beliefs, getting you to admit your needs and desires and ultimately, having you understand yourself and others better.

You have strong reactions to each other when you first meet, either on the positive or on the negative side. It will be important to explore the roots of your reactions and what feelings are evoked or what your business partner reminds you of. Your thinking and perspectives will change dramatically during the course of your relationship. One of the reasons you are together is to transform each other indelibly and any business project you commit to. The way you relate to each other, as well as the latent impulses you evoke in each other, will be powerful and can serve your mutual goals well. Learning to share power and the responsibility that power demands is one of the lessons of this combination. In particular, by focusing your mental energies, you can make a strong impact in your business and environment. Let that impact be positive.

USA's Sun Sextile John's 7th house ruler, Neptune:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to make you aware of the many choices you have and how these choices affect the course of your life and relationship. Use discrimination and your own intuitive sensitivities to guide your best choices.

There is an imaginative and creative component to the energy between you. Perhaps one of you works in an artistic or musical field or another area that seeks to inspire or bring aid to those in unfortunate circumstances. Whatever field you are in, being compassionate and understanding will be an important skill to develop. Applying a spiritual quality to the way you conduct business will also soak up the more negative potential manifestations of this aspect. There is an underside to this aspect between you - distraction or avoidance behaviors can manifest. Or worse, there are potential substance -abuse issues. Do not allow this to happen. If you sense anything of this sort, address it as soon as possible. Keep all your dealings with others aboveboard and honest. This aspect requires a certain amount of discipline and a clear channel for the best energies to flow. Balance your permissiveness with appropriate discrimination.

USA's Mars Square John's 7th house ruler, Neptune:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is teach you to know the limits of your energies, trust your intuition and believe in the power of redemption or spiritual sensitivities.

Your partner may possess the rare qualities of a spiritual sensibility, compassion, selflessness and a sincere desire to help. If these are characteristics you are seeking to apply as part of your business or in a business partner, then this could be the right person for you. However, do not expect your partner to exhibit these ideal character traits 24/7, or you will be disappointed. No one can live up to perfection continuously. Appreciate your partner's excellent qualities and compliment them often. Then again, forgive your partner those inevitable human failings. The tricky part to this combination is correctly assessing your business partner and determining his or her motives or the motives behind a particular project or business practice, and this takes time. There is a tendency to have blind spots, be misinformed or become involved in something unsavory or even illegal with this aspect. It is up to you to remain informed, aware and observant of details, nuances, and the general attitude of your business and your partner. It is in the normal day-to-day that you will discover the real person rather than when a specific performance is required.

USA's Neptune Conj John's 7th house ruler, Neptune:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to increase your sensitivity to the subtleties encountered in all relationships, such as mood, voice tone or level of energy. It can inspire or reveal the amazingly interconnected architecture of life.

You transmit or exchange feelings or sensations that are unseen and non-verbal. You are simply on the same wavelength on a number of topics. Either you recognize a kindred spirit in your business partner or, sometimes, you can be confused by what you pick up. More than likely, you perceive a combination of feelings. There could be a great age difference between you and one of you may be a mentor to the other or a source of inspiration. Make sure that you don't place your business partner on a pedestal and attribute characteristics that he or she cannot maintain. There's no doubt your partner will sometimes disappoint you, but that's life. Your partner is not around solely to make your every dream come true. It's possible you share the same artistic or creative sensibilities on some things and are totally out of sync with each other's tastes in other things. Enjoy the places where you enhance each other and leave the rest.

USA's MC Conj John's 7th house ruler, Neptune:

Core Themes: The intent of this aspect is to take you deeper into your soul's purpose, what you are here to do, and how you are contributing to the greater good. It is important for you to feel that your contribution makes a difference and that you are part of something meaningful and yet also personally fulfilling.

As a result of your association, you will seek greater meaning in life or question if there is enough satisfaction in your career path in particular. You may work for the same company, meet through a work-related activity or seek each other out because you believe you could benefit each other's business objectives. This combination allows you to discover, through some trial and error, what the best environment/position is for the expression of your unique talents. Compassion, caring, forgiveness and unity are skills and issues that become more prominent with this aspect. You may also find yourselves involved with helping others who have somehow lost faith or feel lost. Understanding and maintaining appropriate boundaries at work is another issue that you'll have to contend with. Avoid questionable business involvements and practice integrity in all your business dealings.

Chapter 4: Your Closest Contacts, Your Strongest Themes

This section interprets the closest connections between your charts. The wisdom of this section says that the closest aspects explain the major or central themes of your relationship and the reason you have come together. The nature of these aspects will also define the main activities, interests and patterns that affect your relationship life together.

Notice that, in this section, each paragraph contains both the easier expression of energies and the more challenging ones. Both interpretations are included because these close connections pertain to the central learning curve of your relationship. Based on the premise that the more exact the connection (also the closest energetic contact) between your pair of planets, the more psychologically significant the aspect will be for each of you. This means that you are likely to be strongly influenced by each other in the areas described. Because of this, it will be useful to consider both the easier and more challenging interpretations even though you lead with one of them. You will, from time to time and in various circumstances, probably exhibit some elements of each interpretation, both the easier expressions as well as the more challenging ones. Another thing - it's possible with both types of aspects that you will have the same challenges but simply respond or react to them in different ways. The goal is to rise to the best possible expression of each combination. This is the learning curve and this bestows the necessary wisdom to develop your relationship.

John's Sun Sextile USA's Jupiter (easier aspect):

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship theme will be to expand your learning or experience, take advantage of life's opportunities and, as the poet says, "Catch the joy as it flies". You will want the good things of life in however you define them and you are willing to take certain risks in order to reach those ends. You will seek adventure and fun with a gregarious, generous nature.

Easier aspects: Your combined energies bring many opportunities your way, and people will call you lucky. However, most often it is your consistent generosity of spirit or resources that bring people into your camp and open doors for you when you need it. It will be all too easy for you to go to excesses from time to time or to spend too freely, whether it's your time or resources. You will seek a certain amount of ease and luxury in your life but seem to have enough wisdom to use it in balance and be philanthropic as well. As business partners you can certainly have the golden touch, since your energies tend to broadmindedness and visionary tendencies.

Challenging aspects: In your desire to attain your goals you can make unwise choices. Take the time to look at the opportunities you have and make sure they are sound and will deliver what is promised. At the same time, it will be necessary for you to keep your promises and refrain from overextending yourselves financially or energetically, since this is often an aspect of excess. Be careful of indulging in grandiosity or splashy shows of extravagance. Instead, seek worthwhile experiences and those that will lead you closer to your business goals and to a sense of wisdom. You must either learn to balance taking with giving or watch your opportunities turn to misadventures.

John's Venus Conj USA's Neptune:

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship themes concern sensitivity, compassion, forgiveness and the power of the unseen through symbols and imagination. There is a reverence for life's mystery or faith.

Challenging aspects: You are blessed with an ability to understand, experience and be open to life's special magic and a deeper understanding of its mysteries. The other side of this hypersensitivity is the dislike of conflict or confrontation, which can lead to various avoidance, neglect or substance abuse behaviors as ways to escape from various disappointments. Refuse to become a victim of your emotional sensitivities. Learn to trust your intuition, rather than ignore it, to keep you from questionable experiences in business practices or with business partnerships. Although your feelings can be confused or conflicted or you can be plagued by doubts, seek to speak the truth insofar as you know it to avoid giving your partner the wrong signals. Deliberate untruthfulness would be damaging to your long-term business relationships. The same with persistent avoidance of problems in your business -- the longer you refuse dealing with issues, the worse they get.

Easier aspects: The particular skill you bring to your business relationships is that of emotional intelligence. You have an uncanny grasp of human behavior and more than your fair share of compassion and sensitivity. A tendency to be idealistic and to strive for perfection is an inspiration to those you lead or have contact with in business life. Listening to your instincts when dealing with clients or associates gives you an edge because although you may not be able to fully pinpoint the source of your feelings, you are quite likely to know whom you can trust. You understand that sometimes life works in symbols or in strange coincidences and synchronicity and that there is wisdom in such phenomena. Faith and a spiritual practice are important ingredients in your lives, and you are likely to use spiritual principles in the way you conduct your business. It's possible you inspire others through support of the arts, through a service or caring profession or specific community work. Giving back is a closely held value.

John's Sun Square USA's Asc. (challenging aspect):

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship themes are self-expression, creativity, recognition and sharing the limelight within the context of partnership and relationship. A pure sense of fun and laughter is also evident.

Challenging aspects: There is a possibility that one of you seeks to overshadow the other. This may be unconscious, so be sure that both of you have places in life where you are seen and recognized for your special talents and abilities. Take turns praising each other. Feeling free to express yourself openly with your business partner is a vital part of your relationship dynamic. Although you may not always enjoy the same friends, be sure you share enough social time together because you make an impact when you are touting your business in a public or other social setting. Make sure that you do not criticize or in any way belittle your partner, especially in public. Avoid tiresome ego games.

Easier aspects: You are likely to be proud of your business partner's accomplishments and enjoy each other's personal style and attitude. There appears to be time in your schedule for laughter and an appreciation of life. You feel comfortable with your partner in most ways, because you seem to share much of the same outlook. There's an understanding that recognition in your field involves mingling in social settings and savvy networking. Brand identity and positioning yourselves with a clear identity and goal are vital to your business success. Of course, you are not carbon copies of each other and you manage to accept each other and respect each other's differences.

John's Venus Conj USA's MC:

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship theme is using your negotiation and cooperative skills in business or domestic situations and community affairs.

Challenging aspects: Awareness is at a high level with regard to all your important life relationships. You may feel conflict between your personal relationship needs and the demands of your career. Finding a balance between your job commitments and your family relationships is always somewhat of a struggle for you, but attempting to resolve the imbalance is worthwhile and vital to your well being. Your social activities can either alleviate the imbalance or bring some needed relief and relaxation. Do not be needlessly concerned or compare yourselves to what others have or what they do. Living within the means of your business budget is admirable in itself.

Easier aspects: Your ability to engage socially is your strongest talent. You know how to make others feel at ease, supported and cared for. People will want to work for you, because not only are you fair but you provide a pleasant work environment. Others notice and admire your standard business commitment to fair commerce and cooperative relationships. It's possible you win recognition for your excellent business practices. Showing appreciation to your employees or business associates is another natural behavioral gift that you've developed. Your social connections are many, and it's likely that you love the arts, music and good food and occasionally weave these activities into your business environment.

John's Mercury Square USA's Venus (challenging aspect):

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship theme is being straightforward and proactive in your initiatives or goals and in also in your communication.

Challenging aspects: You have strong and direct communication skills. And yet, at times you are too aggressive in the way you express your opinions and, instead of getting support, you will antagonize your business partner and colleagues or even your clients. Speaking before you think can cause unnecessary hurt and lasting negative impressions. Take a moment to think before you speak and consider both your audience and the consequences of your communication beyond the immediate moment. Impatience can be the culprit of many of your communication problems. Take the time to really listen to the other person. However, as you will discover, being fast or first is not always the best and could ultimately put you last in the long run. Consideration and consistent customer service always win out.

Easier aspects: Participation in a variety of experiences that have to do with learning, language, writing, and short-distance traveling comes easily to you as a team. You value intellect and the ability to communicate and you will seek ways of sharing what you know or what you've learned with business partners, colleagues and in social settings. Your greatest combined asset is communication, (possibly writing too) with consideration and tact. The similar values you hold will be useful when it comes to making decisions about worthwhile projects to advance your business or company. Offering continued education to your employees, as an incentive would work quite well since learning is an intrinsic value that is emphasized by your partnership. Music and the arts are also likely to play a role and can easily be incorporated into innovative and entertaining ways of attracting clients and keeping employees content.

USA's Jupiter Trine John's 7th house cusp (easier aspect):

Core Themes: If this is the most exact aspect between your charts, your main relationship theme is optimism, enthusiasm, faith, positive energy and continually learning and expanding your life experience. You expect to achieve your goals and you will take risks for them.

Easier aspects: You will encourage and support each other in your most ambitious endeavors. There is a willingness to take risks in this combination or at the very least to recognize an opportunity and take advantage of it. Your biggest advantages come about in your fortunate people connections. Protect your alliances, associations and friendships -- they are as valuable or more so than money in the bank. It is your positive energy and natural generosity of spirit that attracts others. Because your love of learning and renaissance personality has gained you skills, you could participate in team teaching or team leading. Others want to open doors for you. Your business partnership is filled with zest and a desire to take advantage of life's many unique opportunities. Traveling can be among the activities you value.

Challenging aspects: Although you approach life with goodwill and enthusiasm, sometimes you push your luck just a bit too far. In your business relationships, you can make too many promises that you don't keep and create disappointment and feelings of unreliability in your wake. Learning to walk your talk is one of the lessons of this aspect. Overdoing, overextending or misjudging can create problems for you. Shooting from the hip won't work for you either. Before you commit yourselves, be sure to think things through and consider the consequences for your business partnership. Somehow, you manage to retain the goodwill of friends most of the time but don't take excessive advantage of this goodwill. If you want true success in business, you will clean up your act and choose wisdom not expediency as your primary mode.
