A Locality Interpretation Prepared for George Bush 2

INTRODUCTION

One thing is certain about you, no matter where you are -- you're one of the people who gets a lot out of life because you look beneath appearances and are willing to think for yourself, astrology being somewhat off the beaten track these days. So what is ASTRO*CARTO*GRAPHY*EXPLAINED? It's based on the common, instinctive idea that a person has different chances, luck, experiences or options in different localities -- that you aren't exactly the same person in New York that you are in Los Angeles. It works by looking at the planets' relationships to the places you've asked about at your birth moment. If a particular planet was especially powerful in the location noted when you were born, then the affairs that it symbolizes should predominate if you travel there, reside there or even have anything to do with that location from some other place.

Since 1976, when the now-standard ASTRO*CARTO*GRAPHY technique was introduced, wide acceptance by both the astrological community and the public has validated it. In addition, ASTRO*CARTO*GRAPHY has been able to benefit from the actual experiences of the thousands who have ordered its maps. The product of this experience is this new service.

WHY DO PEOPLE MOVE?

To understand how this information will be useful, perhaps we should question why people move around so much in the first place. In addition to the obvious reasons are psychological ones. Psychologists (Carl Jung especially) have suggested that people instinctively seek wholeness, or a completeness of their experience. If it's true that different locations accent different parts of your potentials, moving offers a way to speed evolution, to get acquainted with new parts of yourself. So if you find that a location you are obliged to reside at is one in which some of the more problematical influences predominate (such as Saturn, Neptune, etc.), you should look beneath the superficial and immediate desires and concerns of your life and try to understand what emerging consciousness has brought you here. Every location is good for something, and you would not be considering living in a difficult one for no reason. Also, don't get frightened if some of the interpretations sound extreme or perilous. Every planet has numerous possible manifestations, and, while we've tried to include them all here, rarely do the more extreme ones occur. The point in this report is to enable you to anticipate the nature of influences at your potential residence and so become able to recognize and utilize their most positive manifestations.

Different people are apt to react differently to the same astrological influence. You will feel more comfortable with what you already know, so certain planets will be easier for you to live under than others. For example, if you are a woman with traditional values, Mars and the Sun will possibly pose more problems for you than for a man, since the qualities and life experiences associated with these planets are not usually socially encouraged in women's upbringing. Similarly, men will find the Moon and Venus more challenging. People who tend to follow external authorities and believe in society's order as unchallengeable may find themselves more at home under Jupiter and Saturn lines, and stressed by new experiences under Uranus, Neptune, and Pluto, while individualists and the more self-reliant will reverse these reactions.

You might find it useful to realize that, when faced with challenging astrological potentials, it is sometimes easy to "project" these onto your mate or partner, seeing the emerging parts of your own psyche as things THEY are doing. If your interpretations seem to fit your mate, realize that these things are happening because of possibilities in yourself that you aren't ready to face, and try to develop the positive sides of the astrological potentials described.

EVERY PLACE IS GOOD FOR SOMETHING

But the most important thing to realize is that every location is good for something; if you recognize and understand its potentials, you can use them constructively. You'll find that in some instances you don't even have to travel or live in the location -- that its influence affects you through people who come from there, or remote concerns, such as business, cultural or other life interests that symbolize those psychological potentials described by this report.

So here goes with the ASTRO*CARTO*GRAPHY*EXPLAINED analysis of the locations you're interested in. We hope it opens up for you opportunities to find what you're looking for in life; but we also hope it enables you to look beneath the surface, to see patterns in your own development and your instinctive growth toward wholeness.

Washington, DC

PERMANENT INFLUENCES

At the location which you have specified, there was more than one important influence at the time of your birth. Below we have identified the nature of these influences, and they will probably seem somewhat contradictory to you. Residing in a location where there is more than one important planetary influence is of itself somewhat stressful, and it is likely that one or more of the influences will be "projected"; that is, instead of acknowledging and assimilating the influence yourself, you will be inclined to seek other people, or external situations, to act it out for you. Nevertheless, you should attempt to comprehend all influences operating here, since it is only by inwardly accepting such power that you can gain control over it.

To understand the following influence, you should be aware that it is very strong; while reading the description of its psychological and particular manifestations below, keep in mind that you will be drawn into these types of activity almost beyond your will, and that residence here is probably a very significant chapter in your life, one that makes you aware, as never before, of the potentials that are embodied by the astrological effects operating here at your birth. If you do not feel that you wish to deal with these matters as a major part of your day-to-day life, perhaps you should consider residing elsewhere, or at least 300 miles east or west of this location, where the influence is apt to be more moderated.

Jupiter-Imum Coeli

IF YOU'RE JUST VISITING, YOU'LL WANT TO COME BACK

This is a very positive zone to visit, as you consort with a better class of people, attract favorable attention to yourself, seem to acquire new social status and power, and love to spend money. Even if you're not a gambler, don't leave without spending a few dollars on lottery tickets, as this is a very lucky zone, one that increases both your desire for speculation and your odds of winning. It's also a place of religious truth and revelation, dealings with authorities, and chance meetings with the powerful and wealthy, where you could find yourself treated like royalty. Your ideas attract favorable attention, perhaps even offers for publication.

STAYING HERE: THE TAMING POWER OF THE GREAT

Jupiter's power here assures that the central theme of this area is growth through "adding-on" or accretion, so that evolution, deeper participation in experience, and cultural outreach are likely while you reside here, through broadening contact with the world and a "better" class of people. You feel that you are protected by forces or deities favorable to you, and belief in this favoritism gives you an optimistic, omnipotent outlook which encourages you to dare the impossible, exceed your limits, and ascend personally and socially. This is where "wishing makes it so," as hope and faith expand; you come to feel deserving of special treatment by the cosmos which, because you expect it, occurs, particularly extraordinary good luck and social or financial advancement. "Sanctuary" and protection by authorities can be expected; bourgeois values and self-evaluation become prominent here, as you feel distinguished from the mass of humanity, somewhat righteous, self-satisfied, complacent, important, or self-important in community concerns.

The issue of class is very Jupiterian, and you engage in a competition of decency, trying to outdo the Joneses (or maybe the Rockefellers), impressing the world with your attainments, credentials, diplomas, and possessions. The "right" people (especially "professionals") are not to be questioned, and social ascendancy is hierarchical, tradition-based, conservative, and middle class, marked by a contradictory need to feel "special" and an unquestioning addiction to fashion and public opinion. People in academic, bureaucratic, administrative, and professional circles rise quickly here, though the attendant temptation to fulfillment of ambition is abandonment of life's meanings, values, and goals in favor of complacent self-satisfaction.

THE OMNIPOTENT EXECUTIVE

Jupiter's myth is, of course, that of the "chief administrator" of Mount Olympus. Jupiter, or Zeus, was symbolized as justice, light, and intellect, as opposed to the dark earth god Saturn or the god of the underworld Hades. The problem of this zone stems from Jupiter's inherent superiority, which is often interpreted as an imperialistic privilege to ride roughshod over the rights of others. Positively, Jupiter's insight grants foresight, psychic powers, innate leadership, superiority, and understanding of the patterns and structures of the universe; negatively, it breeds blind fundamentalism, intolerance, self-righteousness, superstition, bigotry, xenophobia, and a barren morality that condemns whatever is not just like itself.

In its immature stages, Jupiter consciousness is usually marked with some of the above-mentioned excesses -- having found the "truth" (oneself), any other reality or person must accept your higher vision or be seen as infidel to be forcefully "converted." There is also a bragging, boastful bullyishness; arrogant, imperialistic self-centeredness, and a feeling that you have the right to dominate anyone else by mere reason of who, and how important, you are. This belief is underlain by an infantile expectation that the world is created by your needs in order to fulfill them. Greater maturity finds you dominating through kindness, becoming the philanthropist, humanitarian or liberal who magnanimously wishes all others to have the opportunity to attain the heights of social acceptance and success that you have attained and seeks to offer such opportunities (whether asked for or not).

Wisdom, exuberance, and humor are Jupiter's attainment in full flower, and here is the philosopher-king, generous, benevolent, divinely inspired, able to guide the community and humanity as a whole to a realization of its highest visions. The moral guardians of the state -- judges, academics, artists, musicians, and religious and charitable leaders -- embody this most perfected image of the potentials of this zone and, under its most positive influence, the patterning of ideas that constitute humanity's cultural heritage and knowledge of the past. This ability to comprehend the future can be grasped and understood, putting you in a powerful social role of leader and guide.

DOES "MORE" REALLY MEAN "BETTER"?

People will be content here who value society and its rewards and who aspire to the roles described above. Jupiter zones are less favorable for strong individualists, those who enjoy challenge and pitting themselves against authority and the odds -- those who espouse their own morality and values, as well as the truly creative and independent. This is the place for you if you have a taste for caviar and your eyes light up when a limousine passes by. You'll love it if you feel you are "going someplace" in society and have a vision and commitment to culture, religion, law, education, or the other professions. It could be unfulfilling if you are not typical of your class or family background, consider yourself "self-made," and find TV sitcoms boring.

As a man, you will probably react to this zone's opportunities for social advancement and improvement of status by making the most of them, furthering your education and technical skills and raising your expectations of yourself a notch or two. The problem here may be overconfidence and the intolerant excesses enumerated above. You tend to act without doing enough homework, rely overly on connections and the power of "credentials," and get yourself into situations where you're getting by on appearances and favoritism. These dangers aside, this is a very beneficial zone where success can come in sport, profession, career, and social attainments and where you feel good about yourself and what you can do.

THE WINNERS' CIRCLE

The conventional interpretation of "good luck" seems to be acquiring an abundance of material goods or social status without expending much effort. If this is what you want in life, this is the right place to be. Prosperity, success, credibility, honor, academic achievement, and accomplishment are furthered here as life proceeds effortlessly, you climb socially, and leisure, nonproductive activity and bourgeois conformity are frequent rewards. This zone accents humor, education, religion, quality, integrity, prizes, and mental and cultural accomplishments, and here you are more optimistic, extroverted, and relaxed. Health improves (except where there are problems of overindulgence or sluggish activity), as do magical and healing abilities. In addition to this being a place where you can heal others, any sort of business prospers and succeeds here, as do self-improvement and creativity. Your mind aspires to the lofty, trying to create patterns that explain the universe, and things are seen in general rather than particular context, so that you grasp wholes more easily than details or parts. Music, sports, religion, publishing, media, broadcasting, advertising, promotion, business, import-export, education, the law, finance, medicine, languages, foreign concerns, and travel are all professions that do very well under this influence.

Gambling and speculation are successful here, and this zone is one in which large sums of money may be won (and sometimes lost) in such activities. You might want to try your luck here or invest in companies whose head offices lie within this zone. But beware of blind optimism, extravagance, going into debt to impress others, overgenerosity, and snobbishness -- all dangers of this area. Resist comparing yourself too much to others and getting caught up in totally nonessential, fashionable activity of little enduring value. Notwithstanding these potential hazards, this is one of the most optimistic, successful, and fortunate zones possible, especially for any sort of business or material pursuits.

GOOD LUCK FROM AFAR

Even if you can't travel to this area, it is apt to be significant in your life as a source of sustenance, income, and success. People who come from here can be guides, teachers, mentors, or financial benefactors. Investment in companies or industries based here will tend to prosper, and education (even by correspondence courses) can establish a cornerstone of lifelong success. Cultural concerns are inviting here, and you may like to read about this zone or find its religion, language, or ethnic roots interesting and important.

The particular position that Jupiter occupied in this location at your birth will direct this type of energy and experience particularly into certain life areas; while the most important thing to understand is the underlying meaning and psychological principle, these are apt to manifest more obviously in specific life areas than in others.

IMPROVING YOUR FAMILY

This zone will particularly emphasize personal evolution and expansion through commitment to your location, family, or ethnic self-conceptualization. Moreover, your family, past, and concept of your background may "improve" -- that is, you could elevate your social station through marriage or other family interactions or increase your own estimation of your family and background through becoming acquainted with previously unknown aspects of your past, roots, heritage, financial background, or other allied issues. Your family develops a tradition, grows a family tree, and learns pride in its traditions and heritage. From this growth of an inner sense of tradition and belonging, you develop a greater sense of inner worth and self-esteem which extends itself eventually into other life areas, with resultant good fortune and expansion of career, personal, and social options. Your true inner self is identified by genealogy and a constant centering of self in past and tradition; others react to this by gravitating to your seeming security, sense of purpose, and belonging on earth.

This is an especially good place to reside or retire, and family life prospers here as nowhere else. There is hope for a secure and respected old age as you become matriarch or patriarch, pillar of society, and perhaps a successful, though usually conservative, politician. (But with such success is always the danger of the "big frog" complex.) Real estate increases in value here, and you can make things grow, live off the land, or become a landlord. This is your place on earth, in which the seeds of your potential development find fertilization, and your good fortune enables you to care for less fortunate persons, founding a sort of extended family and acting as living proof of the order of the universe as reproduced in microcosm in the family. Here, in your personal Garden of Eden, you cease struggle with the outer world to build inner worth, sharing your success with those closest to you and pursuing your own religious and social fulfillment. Even short-term residence here can have these effects, changing forever your concept of where you came from and thus where you are going.

This location lies a little to the west of the exact planetary influence; therefore, of the possibilities listed above, those which suggest the direct influence on you by your family, cultural, or ethnic background are the ones most likely to manifest. The planet tends to act outside of you, and polarizes your self-image in opposition to its more negative potentials, requiring by either positive example or direct coercion your development of the described qualities. Who you are, meaning in this case who your family, past, and "roots" have been, becomes a potent force in the creation of who you are growing to be, a force whose nature will conform closely to the description above. Living here will change these most inward of concepts of self, often by direct confrontation with your origins and past.

To understand the following influence, you should be aware that it is very strong; while reading the description of its psychological and particular manifestations below, keep in mind that you will be drawn into these types of activity almost beyond your will, and that residence here is probably a very significant chapter in your life, one that makes you aware, as never before, of the potentials that are embodied by the astrological effects operating here at your birth. If you do not feel that you wish to deal with these matters as a major part of your day-to-day life, perhaps you should consider residing elsewhere, or at least 300 miles east or west of this location, where the influence is apt to be more moderated.

Moon-Midheaven

IF YOU'RE JUST VISITING, YOU'LL BE IMPRESSED BY THE PEOPLE

A short stay in this zone will immerse you in human interest concerns, day-to-day dramas, and emotional storms. Because your appetites (all of them) are intensified, their gratifications are more rewarding, and the body and its pleasures take on new meaning. Gourmets of all kinds will find opportunities for indulgence. You will want to care for or be taken care of by others, so women (especially mothers), family, and domestic concerns dominate. It's hard to pass through this zone without getting embroiled with other people, but you feel closer to your humanity, humbled and still ennobled by the struggles we all share.

IF YOU PLAN TO LIVE HERE, GET USED TO DESIRE

This is your intense "feeling" zone, and living here in this location puts you in touch with the astrological Moon -- your deepest and most significant needs. Existence can be viewed as a constant war of the will between seeking independence and pure, spiritual expression (the Sun) and attaching to the physical world, with subsequent needs for security, nurturance, supportive surroundings, and awareness and sensitivity to environmental influences. In this location, you become attuned to the latter half of the equation, so that life is surrendered to sensation, feeling, vulnerability, needs, and attachment. The gratification of appetites becomes the central focus here, needs seem more intense than in other places, and senses perceive more strongly. Appetites guide destiny, as the self finds itself drawn and attracted to people or their approval in an effort to fill out some missing pieces. Erotic urges are insatiable and often compulsive.

There is a naive emotional reaction to every event and affect, and you are immersed in reality, like a kid watching a movie, hypnotized by the play of sensations and forms outside you. You become especially reactive to other people's awareness of you, unable to ignore their attention or interest, both craving the feeling of substantialness that such attention gives you and resenting your dependence upon it. Yet, just as no seed can grow apart from the earth, this entanglement in sensation fertilizes spiritual potential; the incredible magnetism exerted by people, things, and situations acts to draw you to complete involvement outside yourself -- to parenting, creativity, or other actualization of your possibilities. The tides of attraction are so strong here that you cannot remain aloof and are pulled toward a fertile marriage with material reality. The myth here is of course the Child-Who-Becomes-A-Parent, a union of opposites motivated by the mortality of the flesh to which spirit is wed and the untamable desire of the spirit to live beyond the durability of its bodily prison. And, just as the child is unaware of its identity as a child but is directed entirely toward trying to become "like" its parent, here "what you want to be" becomes the center of attraction, as opposed to "what you are," the focus under the Sun.

CHILDREN COME IN ALL SIZES AND AGES

In the earliest stages of Moon consciousness, the child dominates; there is acute awareness of personal incompleteness and a need to be cared for that is fueled by apprehension that you would perish if left alone. Hunger is the feeling of the unformed lunar consciousness, that aching void within which stems from the umbilicus, the place where mother was "taken" from us. In early stages of Moon consciousness (often the only ones that men ever learn), appetites are so deep and unfulfilled that they threaten to devour their objects. This childlike dependency leads eventually to a role of parent in oneself -- from being child, one switches roles and perceives the parent, the nurturer, provider, and mother-to-the-world -- either as one's own role or in the person of other people. This can result in the unquestioned but total attachment one enjoys with relatives, an unconditional awareness that you and the other person are in life together, for better or worse. The development of this type of interdependency acknowledges that there are other entities in the world. Finally, the Moon matures as the ultimate nurturing parent -- the person who can by his or her mere presence make others feel secure, protected, loved unconditionally, and safe in a supportive and growth-sustaining world. Since all these aspects of Moon consciousness depend on interactions with others, it is in the area of human relationships that most of this awareness is acted out, and it is through such relationships that the different stages are at first defined and then, eventually, assimilated. The tortured pangs of unfulfilled needs lead to the ability to fill those needs not only for oneself, but for others as well.

WHY IS EVERYONE SO EMOTIONAL ALL THE TIME?

This location will be especially critical for men, the masculine-identified, and the self-consciously "superior." People who cannot feel their feelings will project them onto other people and find themselves embroiled in constant wars of emotion and possessiveness. If you see yourself as independent, spiritual, superior to the flesh and its temptations, then this zone will pose real problems for you, although you may insist these are the result of other people's failure to rise above their attachments.

As a man, you will find this area one of particular difficulty for you. You will probably emerge at the earliest stages of Moon awareness noted above, and Woman (or a thinly disguised symbol) will constitute the "reigning need" without which you feel you cannot exist. Goaded by desire, you will seek to attach yourself in an effort to regain your autonomy and independence, often to whomever or whatever first makes itself available. As society encourages men to ignore their feelings, your self-discovery will be a lonely one, but the intensity and insatiability of your desire will force you to seek fulfillment within yourself, most likely through parenting.

THE TEARS AND LAUGHTER

On a more practical level, this area is one in which you get very much involved in every thing and person around you. You are the center of attention and feel self-conscious, exposed, and sympathetic to the multicolored spectrum of emotions that you react to and perceive in others. There are strong domestic, religious, devotional, nostalgic, and sentimental impulses here that can lead to a xenophobic conservatism. You are easily influenced, like a child, unable to say "No." Psychic abilities are highlighted. Love is intensely needed, a frequent crisis concern, so it tends to become one-sided and impermanent, at least until you learn to nurture and care for yourself emotionally. Your relationship with your mother comes to the fore here (too often reenacted in marriage), and you feel your instincts and desires more strongly. You will seek security, are prone to tears and laughter, and may find yourself playing the consumer, trying to fill the empty void and incompleteness that you can't help feeling here. An unpretentious identity is often the product of imitation, and you react with a naive emotionality to every affect, as you sense yourself too close to every human situation in which you become involved. Life seems more like a soap opera, where domestic concerns and a feeling of kinship and "family" with any and all humans take over; this is not an area to go to feel superior -- you are too aware of the needs that bind you and all people together, resulting in a gravitation toward a working-class and shopworn reality, with its variegated feelings and frequent domestic and human-interest crises. The Moon is the "infinite capacity for perception," and here, feelings guide destiny.

Fields in which others are cared for are suggested occupations here: parenting, cooking and restaurant work, helping professions, counseling, roles of interpreter and agent. Success is also likely in gynecology, midwifery, nursing, baking, real estate, public concerns, or daily life concerns such as sales, etc. Feelings are at the bottom of most health complaints, which frequently center in allergies, the gastrointestinal tract, breasts, and female organs.

If you find yourself attracted to and involved with take-charge, maternal types, this may show that you have not accepted your own potential for nurturing, domesticity, caring for yourself and others. Work out life routines that enable you to experience and satisfy your emotional needs; working with others defines these needs and enables you to find in yourself a safe haven and the capacity for self-sustenance.

WHAT DOES THIS ZONE MEAN IF I STAY AWAY?

Even if you can't travel to these areas, you will find yourself better able to care for your own needs as a result of people from here, a sense of family that you may find associated with this part of the world, or even religious doctrines that come from here. Pay attention to information and travelers from these world zones, as they bear messages telling you what you truly need to feel secure and safe in this world. If you relate strongly to your ethnic background, Moon lines may well pass through that part of the world, or residence here activate ancestral patterns in some significant way. Some maternal figure (probably a relative) who lives here may have exemplified an early ideal of the perfect, nurturing mother role in you, which you either attempt to live out yourself or seek in someone else.

This, then, is the underlying psychological principle of the planetary influence operating for you in this location, and you should strive to understand the abstract as well as the particular manifestation of this energy as described above. However, due to the position Moon held at birth at this location, it is apt to operate more in certain life areas than in others.

BUT THEY NEED YOU

The general and particular manifestations of the Moon are most apt to manifest here in your "image" in society, your career, and your relationship with the social milieu of which you are a part. You exhibit emotional attachment to your status, need social acceptance, and model yourself on "success," all of which serve to attract the attention of those of higher rank. The mother-identification will act out in your job here, so that helping professions, domestic concerns, or public service (perhaps even populist-type politics) are possibilities here, as are professions to do with food service, real estate, and the other fields mentioned above. Sensitive to the pulse of public opinion, you may find your relationship with your mother (or people like her) deepening, and you are propelled by a need for approval and acclaim that could well motivate a successful public career. The urge to nurture and protect others is acted out in society, so that underdogs, two- or four-legged, swarm about you in needful confusion. Still, beneath your vulnerable, self-sacrificing public spiritedness, there is the self-conscious need for attention, which sure enough comes, usually from the boss, the powerful, or the politically important. Relationship is both key to success and the great problem here, as influence gains you the status you crave, but stability and security remain dependent upon others, and thus elusive.

This location lies a little west of the precise planetary influence; therefore, of the possibilities listed above, those which seem most outer-oriented, yet personally relevant, are those which should be most apt to manifest. As suggested, the influence will act itself out in a social arena, as you find yourself thrust into situations where imposed leadership or responsibility requires you to develop the capacities and skills enumerated above. At first, of course, you are likely to be exposed to people and situations that command your attention (unwillingly, if these are concerns which you would deny having to deal with) and pose examples of how to assume the required authority and properly act it out, but quickly you'll be left on your own, immersed in challenges and situations that clearly require you to develop the skills and awarenesses mentioned above in a public and highly visible manner. If you feel the world is watching you, that's because it is, as your career or vocational position in society demands acceptance of and growth into the potentials enumerated above.

While the possibilities of how these influences might interact are limitless, the description below suggests some of the experiences you can expect.

Moon*Jupiter

PREPONDERANCE OF THE GREAT

In this locality, a cheerful, masculine, imperialistic self-promotion finds few barriers to its appetite for expansion in society, empowering you to seek, prize, and probably attain a bourgeois success and prosperity, provided that you unquestioningly accept whatever the powers-that-be deem to be correct behavior. A benevolent disposition is underlain by a belief that the status quo is basically justified in its power, so that faith, self-confidence and a belief in the rectitude of the universe are rewarded by privilege, tangible success, honors, advancement and preferment. In keeping with this view that ours is the best of all possible worlds, you may tend more to the right politically, to conservative religion, and admire, in some life area, vested authority, which you see to be supported almost by Divine Right. You may find yourself in an admired position of academic, priestly community or corporate privilege here. Faith in yourself and the equity of the universe makes you an excellent salesperson, promoter, businessperson, publisher, or entrepreneur, though there will be times when foolish optimism and naive imprudence cause reverses. Gambling, extravagance and speculations are temptations. Sexual and creative appetites recede, replaced by drives for honor and approval by society, and the recognition that society bestows on those who will contribute without disrupting.

Introverts may take less enthusiastically to this climate of self-congratulatory promotion, and, perhaps feeling unequal to its demands, take refuge in overweight, indulgence or complacency. Humor, near-miraculous good luck, and social status make it easy to give in to external social pressure. In this very fortunate locale, opportunities offer themselves, and "quality" people make advancement easier by their patronage. Careers in law, music, publishing, medicine, religion, politics, self-improvement, promotion, or any highly paid profession will succeed here, and you become the admired pillar of your community and a self-identified force for social Good. There is also a strong flavor of internationalism and scholarship; you associate with a brilliant and cosmopolitan circle of friends and admirers who keep you informed of the latest intellectual fashions.

SECONDARY INFLUENCES

The material presented above describes the most potent and significant planetary influences operating at the location you have designated at the time of your birth. It is these concerns and manifestations that should demand your concentrated attention, and it could be suggested that it is to assimilate and understand this type of experience that you have considered residence in this locale. However, there are additional, less potent influences, that also operate here, due to the geographical latitude at which it is located, a latitude that has special importance for you. These influences will constitute a "subplot" or subsidiary influence while you are here, influences of about one-third the power of the major ones described above, and ones which are apt to manifest in relationships especially -- with either you or your partner acting them out.

The following influence is so weak that it may entirely escape notice. Still, it is an option that can be developed, if desired, and will manifest more strongly if it relates well with your personality or other influences present at this location.

Mars*Uranus

DON'T TREAD ON ME

In this location, you may undertake the definition, articulation, or implementation of your independence, demanding freedom from coercion and confinement. You cannot be made to do anything that you do not wish to do, but your rebellious and devil-may-care attitude can have perilous consequences, which probably won't discourage you in the least. You delight in the role of the daredevil and are something of a loner, seeing masculinity, independence, and power equated with an extremely individualistic lifestyle or one rebellious from societal norms. You will defend what you see as your rights to the end, express little warmth or affection, and may find yourself well outside social support groups, aloof, and brutally honest. Sexual needs are apt to be intense and may take unconventional forms -- you have no respect for others' property or prerogatives, nor for others' concept of modesty or propriety.

Inventiveness is accented, and engineers, surgeons, miners, scientists, and those working in technological areas may find their creativeness enhanced. Though you live for day-to-day thrills in this adventuresome climate, there is considerable danger of injury here, and accidents in the use of guns or machinery, in driving or transportation are probable. Shipwreck, aircraft failures, fires, lightning strikes, and other such sudden, violent disasters are more likely here than in other locales, but by no means will affect everyone. Despite this danger of constant exposure to unforeseen upheaval, you become daring, insouciant, and disdainful of danger, purposefully seeking areas where angels fear to tread and surviving longer in them than statistically probable. Athletes, mercenary or professional soldiers, explorers, stuntpersons, and heroes may find this climate to their liking, but few others will prove hardy enough to relish the narrow escapes, restlessness, irritability, insomnia, frequent broken bones and contusions, and functional health problems as daily fare. Partnerships and human relationships in general tend to upheaval and unpredictability as well, and an extremely masculine climate prevails -- little of sympathy, understanding, or cooperation. Yet, for those who need constant adrenaline to add savor to life and who enjoy testing and combative situations, this is a challenging and exciting locality.

These, then, are the important astrological influences which affect this location, now and in the future. Needless to say, they all won't manifest the moment you arrive, but will indeed emerge as the most powerful psychological potentials over time.

EPILOGUE

This concludes our enumeration and description of the planetary influences, permanent and temporary, that affect the locations that you submitted. As you have observed, some of the information is psychological in nature, as it is the belief of ASTRO*CARTO*GRAPHY that planets act, not through any mystical "power" or magic, but by paralleling potentials in the human psyche, and in orderly and comprehensible fashion, marking the development of this maturity. It is hoped that you are able in this way to see that there are really no "good" or "bad" locations for you -- that in the process of growing into mature completeness, you will have to experience every psychological possibility. At best, this report will work to inform you what these are for you in the locations you are considering, letting you know what to expect, and so empowering you to be able to utilize the most positive possibilities.
